The Recreation Association will not appear as one of the participating agencies this year, but two new ones have been added, the American Red Cross and the Pennsylvania United Fund.

"We all are familiar with the services rendered by the American Red Cross and the Pennsylvania United Fund is actually a group of six separate services joined together to seek support as a unit," William Lentz, general chairman, said. He asked that the persons called upon "give a little time to hear the story and to consider before making a pledge that the Community Chest campaign combines seven drives into one federated appeal."

Fire Hydrogen Missile 80 Miles From Submarine

POINT MUGU, Calif. (AP) — A Regulus II missile, capable of carrying a hydrogen warhead, has been launched from a submarine for the first time.

The 57-foot, 11-ton missile swooshed up from the submarine Grayback Tuesday and flew inland to Edwards Air Force Base, about 80 miles away in Southern California's Mojave Desert.

The wheels of the 1,500 m.p.h. missile failed to lower, however, and it skidded on its belly, caught fire and burned. Test models of the missile are equipped with wheels so they may be recovered after firing.

The Navy says this is the weapon that could be hurled from a sub surfacing off an enemy coast to strategic targets more than 1,000 miles inland. The Navy said Tuesday's roundabout flight was about 200 miles.

Auto Workers Leave Jobs Despite Report Of Offer Which Might End Dispute

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers at Ford plants across the country began walking off the job at a 10 a.m. strike deadline today even as the union said there had been a new offer which might solve the dispute.

UAW President Walter Reuther told newsmen that the company had added something new. He said the strike machinery was in motion and that the union had no way of holding its workers on the job past the strike hour.

Ford reported nine of its 86 plants were shut down by walkouts before the strike deadline. The rest were affected as the talks went on.

John S. Bugas, Ford vice president in charge of industrial relations, told newsmen he would not describe Ford's latest move as a new offer but rather "a refining and modifying process in the past few days."

Carl Stellato, president of the 50,000-man Ford Local 600, biggest unit in the UAW, left the bargaining session to address a mass meeting at the huge Ford Rouge plant in suburban Dearborn.

Stellato told newsmen the strike was on and said he had received reports that walkouts were beginning at Rouge.

Stellato told newsmen that the company had proposed a settlement of the retroactive pay issue, one of the major points at issue in the long negotiations, by offering to make its contract effective as of July 1. Ford workers had been without a contract since the old pact ended June 1 and the union had demanded that any new agreement be retroactive to that date.

COMMISSIONERS NAME ASSESSOR

The Adams County commissioners at their meeting in the court house this morning appointed Frederick Miller as assessor of the First Ward of McSherrytown to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph Neiderer.

Five steel I-beams, 30 feet in length, were ordered to replace wooden beams on a county-owned bridge over Pine Run in Hamilton Twp. Charles Albright, East Berlin R. 2, who handles the maintenance of the county-owned bridges, was directed to use the steel beams to replace the rotting wooden beams in the structure.

The commissioners began plans for renovation of election places for the November election. Reports showed a number of wooden pieces needed replacing and curtains repaired on the movable booths placed in election houses. In addition a check was made of the nine election houses owned by the county in Cumberland No. 1, Hamiltonban No. 1, Butler, Hamilton, Latimore, Menallen, Mt. Joy, Straban and Oxford Twp., to determine what repairs may be needed before November. The commissioners also were checking various places rented for the elections in various communities to determine whether there be any changes by November. At least one change, in Heidlersburg, for Tyrone Twp. No. 1, is anticipated.

Reports at the meeting indicated the possibility of a further report by the Adams County Home Advisory committee, set up by the commissioners to study the county home in all its phases, in about ten days. The commissioners said they also hope by that time to have a report from the appraisers who have looked over the county home land to suggest its value when the commissioners decide to sell off parts of the county home farm.

27 BODIES ARE RECOVERED AT WRECK SCENE

By ROBERT FARRINGTON
BAYONNE, N. J. (AP) — The third coach of a Jersey Central Railroad train that plunged into Newark Bay was recovered from the water here today.

The bodies of three men and a woman were taken from the coach while divers found two other bodies floating nearby.

Recovery of the six bodies brought the death toll to 27. The railroad estimates the final toll may go as high as 40.

Plunged Into Bay
The commuter train's two locomotives and three of its coaches plunged into the bay from an open drawbridge Monday.

Divers, coastguardmen and police worked into the early hours today to raise the coach as floodlights played on the glittering water.

Bodies taken from the water and from the train were removed to the Hudson County morgue for identification.

The coach itself was lifted up and swung into a lighter, next to the two coaches that were recovered earlier.

Engineer's Heart Weak
The train's engineer, Floyd Wilburn, 63, Red Bank, died in the accident. An autopsy report said a weak heart caused by high blood pressure contributed to his death.

Medical officials were careful to point out, however, that the exact cause of death will not be known until further tests are made.

The drawbridge operator, Patrick Corcoran, 55, said he had set the signals to halt the train and watched helplessly as it continued its approach.

An automatic derailing device had thrown the train off the rails 550 feet from the edge. It rolled along on the ties for 200 feet. Then the wheels bit hard into the ties, indicating a desperate last-second effort to halt the train.

NEW OXFORD TO STAY WITH DST

New Oxford will continue on Daylight Saving Time until October 26. The borough council which met in a special session Tuesday night discussed the possibility of ending daylight time in September but took no action to set the earlier ending when it was agreed among the councilmen that it would be better for the community to operate in line with neighboring communities which will continue on daylight time through October.

The council awarded a contract for lowering the grade of about 150 feet of St. Peter St. to C. Joseph Deller. Deller's bid of $135 for the job, which includes repaving of the section, was the lower of two bids.

The council also decided that the borough will place a sidewalk along a property, the owner of which has failed to comply with council's demand that the job be done. Cost of the improvement will be assessed against the owner.

At its regular meeting last week the council called for preparation of a curfew ordinance. The new legislation will be brought up for consideration at the next regular meeting October 6.

LUCKY TICKET PROVIDED FUND

How a 25-cent chance, bought 12 years ago, provided for the last years and burial of a local man was recalled Monday afternoon when the Adams County court approved the first and final account of the Gettysburg National Bank as guardian of the estate of Charles W. Haverstock, who died June 26. He was well known in the community, had labored long and hard but had never gained too large a share of worldly wealth. Twelve years ago he held the winning ticket and was awarded an automobile. It was generally believed that Mr. Haverstock had not purchased the ticket, but that it had been secured in his name by a friend.

Unable to drive, Mr. Haverstock agreed with a court order that the car be sold and the money placed in a trust fund for him.

On December 24, 1946, the auto was sold at public auction for $1705. Uncle Sam, through the collector of internal revenue, instantly took $176 for income tax and costs reduced it by a few more dollars.

The fund was invested and during the years Mr. Haverstock had full use of the fund.

At the time of his death $342.97 remained. Funeral expenses took $300 and the remainder was paid to his daughter and only heir.

Parking In Gettysburg: Council

has decided to have enforced to the letter the Parking Ordinance covering Center Square and the first blocks of York, Carlisle, Chambersburg and Baltimore Sts. — 2 hour parking limit and no double parking whatever, both day and night, except for passengers to get in or out of a car; soon as passengers are out, cars must move on. Stop signs mean "stop" and will be enforced.On all streets of the town trucks and moving vans must park parallel with the curb to load and unload and not out across the streets obstructing traffic. If trucks to unload merchandise at stores cannot get up next to the curb they will have to unload in the alleys back of the stores, and merchants will please so instruct drivers of trucks.Parking on angle by all cars must be discontinued on all streets except Center Square. Council feels that if our business men and their clerks cooperate, there will be plenty room for parking.This advertisement is run in the paper in the hope that everyone will obey the parking rules as noted above, and thereby relieve me of the unpleasant duty of imposing fines.

Hurricane May Strike Here

Tonight; Creeks Overflow Banks
Today: A monotonous drizzling rain that spread over Gettysburg and Adams County the latter part of this week, presumably the forerunner of the tropical hurricane that is sweeping up the Atlantic coast, broke with renewed vigor early this morning and flooded many sections of Gettysburg and outlying districts.After more than two days of light and drizzling rain the storm roared down this morning, caused many streams to overflow their banks, flooded countless cellars in Gettysburg and blocked several roads leading out of town.It was the third storm of such severe nature to strike this community in two months, and weather bureau predictions are that if the center of the hurricane reaches this far inland from the Atlantic coast it will be the worst of the season.

HIGH-FLYING ENTHUSIASM

I have just finished reading one of the most inspiring biographies I have ever read. The name of the book is "Miracle in the Mountains." It is the story of a great woman, Martha Berry, who founded the now famous "Berry Schools." The book was written by Harnett T. Kane, famous Southern writer, and Inez Henry, who was the secretary for Martha Berry.From a simple Georgia log cabin, and an idea, was born this wonderful educational school, especially aimed to care for the poorer mountain boys and girls. To them Martha Berry devoted her life, her strength, and her enthusiasm. Some 20,000 boys and girls owe to her their education and the endless opportunities that have had their origin in this school that started with a log cabin, later attracting the notice of Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Ford, who gave millions to it and to Martha Berry's crusade for the mountain people of the South.Martha Berry gave all that she had in herself, and attracted the attention of the leading educators of America. She was an extraordinary person. One admirer stated that meeting her was the only time he wished he had been born a woman rather than a man! Her magnetism attracted all to her, from the poorest to the greatest. She never seemed to tire if what she gave in strength went into her school and to the gain of her boys and girls.A man who had known Martha Berry since childhood had this to say: "She always believed there was something wonderful around the corner. There often was if only because she had struggled to put it there." Blessings to others continue to live and inspire all who came within the influence of Martha Berry.Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Outlets to Worry."

HE RECALLS HER VOWS

Oh, many were the vows she made
In days gone by; I'm half afraid
To now recall them here.
I well remember once she said:
"No man is good enough to wed;
The best man living here
I wouldn't marry. No sirree!"
She didn't. She married me."I'd never darn a husband's socks,"
Said she. "Such menial labor shocks."
Nor sew his buttons on.
Think you that I would stay at homeTo cook for him, when I would room?
Such work I frown upon.
That kind of toil I'll never do."
She makes a splendid Irish stew."I don't like children, not at all;
I cannot bear to hear them squall
And dread a dirty face.
Their table manners all are bad.
I'm sure I'd die if e'er I had A child about the place."And yet, my goodness! how she files
Upstairs the minute baby cries.

Eisenhower, Atty. Gen. Rogers told a news conference in connection with the wait-and-see policy the President approved: "I think it is clear to anybody that to just try to solve this problem by legal methods alone, just by law suits, is not very satisfactory."

May Act Later

For that reason, Rogers said in a prepared statement, the administration "is withholding a decision as to appropriate legal moves at this time."Rogers, the government's chief law enforcement officer, made it clear there is likely to be federal legal action later if the schools closed in protest against the Supreme Court go-ahead on integration are not opened.Rogers also talked of announced Justice Department plans to enlist the help of U. S. marshals for preservation of law and order in communities where there is resistance to admittance of Negroes to white schools.

Troops Not Ruled Out

But he did not rule out use of federal troops again if the marshals should find themselves unable to check violence such as broke out in Little Rock, Ark., a year ago. That violence caused Eisenhower to dispatch troops to Little Rock's Central High School.
In Little Rock, Arkansas Gov.
Orval E. Faubus commented: "I have always maintained that the use of federal troops is illegal.
They know it is illegal and that is why they are trying to avoid it."Faubus ordered four Little Rock high schools closed shortly after the Supreme Court last Friday called for integration to proceed without delay at Central High.
One Virginia school has also been shut down.

GROUP FACES
CHINA QUESTION

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. (AP)—
The U. N.'s powerful Steering Committee today faced up to its first major test—the question of seating Red China—after the election of Lebanon's pro-Western Charles Malik as General Assembly president.Debate over the Red China issue undoubtedly will drag in the dispute over Nationalist China's offshore islands in the Formosa Strait.The United States was confident the U. N. will follow past procedure and vote to shelve the Peiping issue for another year. The Americans have made plain they are determined to prevent Red China from "shooting its way" into the U. N.

Opened Tuesday

The Assembly opened Tuesday, electing Lebanon's foreign minister, Malik, as its president.Malik's 45-31 first-ballot victory over Sudan's nationalist Foreign Minister Mohammed Ahmed Mah-goub, supported by all the Arab League states but Lebanon, was seen as a triumph for the United States and its allies.Just before the vote, Czechoslovakia announced she was pulling her delegate, Jiri Nosek, out of the race. She made clear the nine-nation Soviet bloc was throwing its support behind Mahgoub.

Assembly In Reces

Malik's open pro-Western stand had alienated many Asian-African states, especially those who support President Nasser's United Arab Republic. Many had believed this opposition—plus open Soviet support for Mahgoub—would cost Malik the election.The General Assembly was in recess today while the Steering Committee acted on the proposed agenda.The Assembly will open its general policy debate Thursday with Secretary of State Dulles speaking in the morning and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in the afternoon.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"When I do something, I do it with enthusiasm. If I can't be enthusiastic about a thing, I don't do it."That explains as well as anything why Felix Locher has been able to find success as a film actor at the age of 76. Not bad, considering he never acted in his life until three years ago.It all started when Locher (pronounced Lo-shay) was visiting Jon Hall at a costume studio. Hall's real name is Charles Locher and he is the son of Felix.

Played Tahitian Chief

The father raffish through the script of Jon's upcoming picture, "Hellship Mutiny." "Why couldn't I play the part of the Tahitian chief?" Felix inquired. "I've lived in Tahiti; I know how he would act.""Ridiculous. Dad," the actor replied. "You've never acted before. Don't get into something you know nothing about."Then the director of the picture came in, spotted Felix and pronounced him perfect for the role of the chief. He got the part.

Learned New Profession

But the rest wasn't easy. At 73, he had to learn a brand-new profession. For a year, he went to his agent's office and practiced plays with hopeful young actresses.
When he felt he was ready, he went after roles. He started with Matinee Theater on TV, did the Loretta Young Show, Have Gun,
Will Travel, Shirley Temple's
Storybook and features like "Kings Go Forth" and "Frankenstein's Daughter."Now he has his biggest role to date, playing a Basque elder in "Between Thunder and the Sun" with Susan Hayward and Jeff Chandler.

Salesman, Too

But he isn't devoting his full time to acting. He's also a crack insurance salesman—"I'm trying to sell my son a partnership policy; he was hard to sell, but I think he realizes he needs it now."He also holds 100 copyrights for his Telecurve World Maps, on which he lectures before military units and schools. These are projections of the earth's curves on flat surfaces.As if that wasn't enough, Felix also demonstrates and sells massage machines."Enthusiasm—that's the way to avoid growing old," he said.HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Shirley

RULED VALIDATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—
Two trusts set up under a $400,000 will and providing aid for needy white mothers and children have been ruled valid, provided they are administered by private trustees.Superior Court Judge Lester A.
Drenk made the ruling Tuesday on the will of the late Mrs. Laura E. W. Tyler, a resident of nearby Ventnor until her death two years ago at the age of 81.Her will set up one trust to provide food and clothing for needy, white, American born wives and children of prisoners at Pennsylvania's Eastern State Penitentiary, of which her father, Henry L. Wilkinson, was assistant warden for 42 years.The second trust granted free hospitalization at Philadelphia's Hahnemann Hospital to needy, white, American born children under 14 with an I. Q. of 75 or over.
Both were administered by the Philadelphia Board of City Trusts.

Asked Interpretation

Because of similarities to the Girard College case in Philadelphia, administrators of Mrs. Tyler's will asked court for an interpretation of the trusts.In its ruling the court removed the Philadelphia Board of City Trusts as trustees and substituted the Camden Trust Co.In his opinion Judge Drenk cited the U. S. Supreme Court in the Girard case and said:"The court did not restrict the right of an individual to create trusts for the benefit of any person or class whether the trust so created is limited or discriminating in any way.""Under such a prohibition, no one would be permitted to create trusts or give to a class favoring his church, his fraternal groups, his charitable interests or his national origins."When Kenny Lane was beaten in a recent title fight with lightweight champion Joe Brown, it was the first time in the south-

Penn State And Pitt Open '58 College Gridiron Season This Weekend; Midwest, Coast

By ARNOLD ZETLIN
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Football, the sport so many Pennsylvanians were born to play, presents a complex of new rules, new conference arrangements and new coaches when state colleges moved in action Saturday.

Two of the state's major schools — Penn State and Pittsburgh — open their schedules with inter-sectional games against Nebraska and UCLA, respectively. Villanova's first game is against hardy West Chester State Teachers, one of the more powerful little schools. The University of Pennsylvania, the fourth of the so-called major quartet, opens its season the following Saturday with revived hope and more speed in the backfield against Penn State at Franklin Field.

Some To Use Old Rule
By that time, most every college that fields a football team in Pennsylvania will have gotten in its licks.

The most controversial of the new rules—the two-point run-pass conversion — will not get a thorough test in Pennsylvania. The state teachers colleges, for instance, will play under the rules of the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics. The association is sticking to the old-fashioned one-point or nothing way of scoring after touchdowns.

Most of the state's other colleges will go along with the rule and give bleacher quarterbacks a second guessing field day—pass or run for two points; or kick for one?

New Loop Arrangement
The Middle Atlantic Conference will test this new league arrangement:

Eight teams will comprise a university division. They are Bucknell, Delaware, Gettysburg, Lafayette, Lehigh, Muhlenberg, Rutgers and Temple.

A college group was divided into north and south divisions. In the north are Albright, Dickinson, Hofstra, Juniata, Lebanon Valley, Lycoming, Moravian, Scranton, Susquehanna, Wagner and Wilkes. In the south are Drexel, Franklin and Marshall, Haverford, Johns Hopkins, Pennsylvania Military College, Swarthmore, Ursinus, Western Maryland and West Chester.

Other Complications
To complicate matters, West Chester also is in the 14-member state teachers college conference. The conference a rotating schedule becomes effective this season.

That means each team will meet enough teachers college opponents over the next 10 years to qualify for the title each year. Last season, West Chester was undefeated. But it did not meet enough teachers colleges and unbeaten Lock Haven and Shippensburg (once tied) shared the championship.

In another first, Thiel of Greenville will compete in the President's Athletic Conference, meeting three conference teams, John Carroll of Cleveland; Allegheny College of Meadville; and Washington and Jefferson of Washington, Pa.

Some New Coaches
The State Teachers Conference will contribute one of the coaches making their debuts this season. Dr. George Ockershausen becomes head coach of East Stroudsburg. He replaces Gene Martin, coach since 1942, who resigned to handle his increased duties as dean of men.

Bob Odell, former Penn All-America fullback, takes over at Bucknell and Jack Hinkle, one-time Philadelphia Eagles halfback, becomes head coach at Drexel.

A Bit Of "Dark Horse"
There is a little bit of dark horse in each of the four majors. After four ragged seasons at Penn, Coach Steve Sebo is riding on a modest three-game winning streak. With the help of 21 returning lettermen, he wants to keep the streak alive long enough to make a big noise in the Ivy League race. Fred Doelling is the backfield key, Sebo believes.

While Penn is boasting about its backfield speed, Penn State's Rip Engle has rock-solid line strength in an "A" line that averages 210 pounds per man and a "B" line averaging two pounds heavier. Senior quarterback Al Jacks will direct the Lion attack behind sound protection.

John Michelson at Pittsburgh has back his entire 1957 backfield of quarterback Bill Kaliden, halfbacks Dick Haley and Joe Scisley and fullback Fred Riddle. But he insists Pitt's year will be 1959. His strongest lineman is guard John Guzik, an All-America candidate.

Around The State
Villanova's best individual bet is end Gene O'Pella. Otherwise, Coach Frank Reagan will have to develop a starting combination out of a squad which includes three regular returnees.

Elsewhere around the state: Some measure of Odell's success at Bucknell rests on sophomore halfback Warner Terhes, Lehigh's Bill Leckonby's work is cut out for him—he must find a replacement for Dan Nolan, the field general who led the Engineers to an 8-1 season last year. Bob Scheu, an untied sophomore, will try to fill the void at quarterback.

Good Crop At W.C.
Coach Glenn Killinger has called his sophomore crop at West Chester the best he's seen since he started coaching at the school 22 years ago. West Chester will depend on a 14-game winning streak against Villanova.

Dave Yohn, regarded as one of Gettysburg's greatest centers, heads the nine returning lettermen who will try to better the college's fine record of 7-1-1 last season. Coach Gene Haas believes Dick Davidyock, switched from end to fullback, will provide much of the offensive punch.

Most of the other colleges in the university division of the MAC believe Dave Nelson will have a rugged contender in Delaware. Nelson insists the team is so loaded with talent, he'll have trouble picking his starting lineup through December.

Glances Around State
Brief glances at other schools: Jack Hinkle at Drexel has 17 letter winners and says his weak spot is tackle, where one veteran is back. Carnegie Tech is counting on at least two freshmen to bolster its team. Tech celebrates the 20th anniversary of its Lambert Cup-winning Sugar Bowl team of 1938. Temple's Pete Stevens contends his first string is adequate, but he has no bench strength to back it up. Muhlenberg will be a late opener, its first game being Oct. 4 against Lafayette. Herb Owens, who raced for 10 touchdowns in 1957, is being counted on again for most of the scoring punch. Jan Skladany, son of one-time Pittsburgh star Mugsy Skladany, will be a returnee at quarterback for Dickinson, which lost six, won none in 1957. Franklin & Marshall has a strong fullback in George Darragh, but may not get service from talented end Bill Pettigrew who was injured in a vacation time accident.

Seven holdover letter winners showed up among the thin group of 24 players at Albright, which is planning to extract more manpower from freshmen. Coach Ellis McCracken of Lebanon Valley thinks he may have the best starting lineup in several years, with Ken Longenecker the weightiest guard in the state at 335 pounds. The Flying Dutchman may figure on some assistance from another direction since four varsity candidates are divinity students.

American League Attendance Shrinks

NEW YORK (AP) — The American League entered the final 12 days of the baseball season today faced with the possibility of suffering a decline of one million in attendance.

Without the pennant race already over and interest centered only on the league batting competition and the battle for third and fourth places in the standings, the junior circuit shows a deficit of 864,000. Every club in the league is under last year's total except Washington.

The National League is considerably ahead of its 1957 pace. Its teams have played before 9,723,000 fans as compared to 8,413,476 in as many 1957 games.

The largest NL gains have been registered by the transplanted Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants, the Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago Cubs.

BURDETTE WINS HIS 18TH FOR SURGING BRAVES

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Lew Burdette, a betroubled World Series hero at the All-Star game, now has a shot at 20 victories and his winningest season in the majors.

The big right-hander who had only a 6-7 record in early July, has won 12 of 15 decisions since. And he's won seven of his last eight, with two shutouts and three one-run games for a 1.08 earned run average over the past month.

Burdette, whose best winning year was 1956, when he was 19-10, nailed his 18th Tuesday night as the Milwaukee Braves whipped the San Francisco 4-1 and cut their magic number for a second straight National League pennant to three.

Pirates Wins Two
Pittsburgh chopped its magic number for second place to two, beating St. Louis 3-1 after wrapping up a 2-1 victory in the completion of a game suspended Aug. 3. Cincinnati took a two-night pair from Los Angeles 5-3 and 7-5 in 10 innings. The Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 10-6 in 10.

Burdette gave up seven hits, one a fifth-inning homer by Bill White. The Braves beat Johnny Antonelli (15-13) with three in the seventh, when three errors followed Felix Mantilla's leadoff triple.

11th In Row For Witt
Rookie right-hander George Witt (9-2) backed up by Bob Skinner's RBI singles, became the first NL pitcher to win seven in a row this year as the Pirates finished last month's curfewed game. The Bucs six games behind Milwaukee, won the nightcap with Dick Stuart and Skinner driving in all the runs. Each had three hits. Ron Kline (13-15) won it. Wilmer Mizell (10-13) and Bob Mabe (2-7) were the losers.

A pinch, two-run homer by Smokey Burgess won the nightcap for the Redlegs, who took the opener on home runs by Jerry Lynch, Pete Whisenant and rookie Dutch Dotterer that doomed the Dodgers to their first sub .500 season since 1944. Brooks Lawrence (8-12) and Tom Acker (4-3) were the winners. Johnny Podres (13-14) and Johnny Klippstein (6-6) took the defeats.

A two-run single by Al Dark bagged it for the Cubs and gave rookie John Buzhardt his first major league decision. Rookie Don Erickson lost his first for the Phils.

SUCCESS OVER YANKEES WINS FAME FOR LARY

By DAVE DILES
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Don't drag out that old "Break up the Yankees" routine around Frank Lary.

Without them, the drawing son of an Alabama peach farmer is just another pitcher. But because of them, the 27-year-old Detroit Tiger right-hander is a big league success.

Lary defeated the American League champions Tuesday for the 16th time in 21 career decisions, pitching a brilliant three-hitter in a 4-2 triumph that tightened the Tiger grip on third place.

Among Top Yankee Killers
This is the seventh victory and sixth complete game in eight starts this year for Lary against New York, and he has yielded only 14 earned runs in 67 2-3 innings.

Despite his so-so record against other clubs, Lary now ranks among the all-time Yankee killers. Big Ed Walsh, now critically ill with cancer, posted a 9-1 record against the cellar-dwelling bombers of 1908 and a 7-3 mark against the 1911 New York team that finished sixth. Ed Cicotte matched Lary's 7-1 mark back in 1916 against a fourth-place Yankee crew.

No Different Tactics
The Yankee manager was in no mood to talk about Lary's accomplishments. "If I knew what was causing me a headache," said Stengel, "don't you think I'd go out and get me a cure?"

"I don't pitch any differently against New York than against any other team," said Lary. "Sure, I have confidence when I go against them and everybody likes to beat the Yankees. But maybe they have the idea they can't beat me. That would help, wouldn't it?"

Ortega Favored To Beat Don Jordan

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Gaspar Ortega, the to-ranked welterweight challenger, was favored slightly in a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight with Don Jordan.

The fight will be televised by ABC at 10 p.m. (EDS).

Sports reporters who have watched both fighters in workouts said Ortega should enter the ring as about an 8-5 favorite.

Despite 20 knockouts, Ortega is given a 1-3 chance to kayo Jordan, who has never been stopped in climbing to his present No. 6 position among title challengers.

Ortega, who fights out of Tijuana, Mexico, is expected to weigh about 146 pounds at fight time—some five pounds more than Jordan.

Ortega has a 48-11-2 record, Jordan 41-11-1.

FIRST GRIDIRON SELECTIONS BY SPORTS SCRIBE

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP) — Most experts agree there will be confusion galore at the start of the 1958 college football season because of the change in value of some conversions, the almost two-platoon substitution rule and the one-arm blocking.

Those experts are correct. There is confusion. Here are the first selections of the season to prove it.

Georgia Tech over Kentucky: Both teams are bouncing back from poor seasons but Tech will bounce the higher with Fred Bralson ticketed for stardom.

Picks Penn State
Missouri over Vanderbilt: You can see this one for yourself on your TV screen. Coach Dan Devine brings his multiple offense technique to the Tiger campus and gets off with a victory.

Washington State over Stanford: Bobby Newman, Washington State quarterback, was the nation's leading ground gainer last year and is back for more action. Stanford's entire backfield was graduated.

Penn State over Nebraska: The Pennsylvania Lions are mature at every position while Nebraska still is trying to learn the single wing plays added to the Huskers' split-T formation of the past.

Favors UCLANS
UCLA over Pittsburgh: Lack of expert tackles will hurt Panthers in this inter-sectional clash.

North Carolina over North Carolina State: Coach Jim Tatum has 22 lettermen back and admits this is the best team he has had since starting coach at North Carolina. State whipped the Tar Heels the past two years and this will be for blood.

Maryland over Wake Forest: The 13th loss in a row for Wake Forest.

TCU over Kansas: The Texas Frogs have added a passing attack to their 1957 running game. They also are big and fast.

Picks Oregon State
Oregon State over Southern California: A Friday night encounter that sends Oregon State's veteran array against Trojan sophomores.

Duke over South Carolina: A squeaker that likely will be decided by one of those new fangled conversions.

Oklahoma State over Denver: The Oklahoma Cowpokes are getting ready to move into the Big Eight circuit.

Texas over Georgia: The defense minded Texans will turn Bobby Lackey loose often enough to halt the Bulldogs.

Other Selections
Skipping over the others in a hurry:

Friday night: Detroit over George Washington, Davidson over Catawba.

Saturday:
East: Boston College over Scranton, Villanova over West Chester State.

South: Clemson over Virginia, Florida State over Furman, Florida over Tulane, Mississippi over Memphis State, Virginia Tech over West Texas State, Virginia Military over Morehead State, West Virginia over Richmond.

Midwest: Bradley over Butler, Cincinnati over Dayton, Iowa State over Drake, Wyoming over South Dakota State, Wichita over Bowling Green.

Far West: Arizona State over Hawaii, Utah State over Arizona, Brigham Young over Fresno State, Oregon over Idaho, Utah over Montana.

Southwest: Arkansas over Baylor, Louisiana State over Rice, Texas A&M over Texas Tech.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jim Owen, 23-year-old right-hander, joined the Philadelphia Phillies today after serving two years in the Army. He is on terminal leave from Ft. McPherson, Ga.

Owen is considered a top pitching prospect. Before entering the Army he played for Syracuse.

NEW SOCCER COACH
ELIZABETHTOWN — Ira R. Herr, Elizabethtown College athletic director for 28 years, has been named to succeed D. Paul Greene as Blue Jay soccer coach, according to Pres. A. C. Baugher.

The North Carolina State football squad of 1958 will be young in experience. Of the 63 players, 41 are sophomores, 10 are juniors and 12 are seniors.

SOFTBALL LOOP WILL SEEK REC SPONSORSHIP

Gettysburg's Softball League, which has operated for a score of years independently, will seek new supervision in 1959, it was decided at a meeting Tuesday evening at the Moose Home.

The action followed the resignation of the officers who had previously informed the league this would be their final year in conducting the organization. Resigning were Johnny Grindler, president; Don Bream, vice president, and Carroll Smith, secretary-treasurer.

Managers present decided to get in touch with Chester Hilger, recreation director, in the hope of having the Recreation Association sponsor the league.

All physical equipment at the field, which was erected and maintained by the league, will be turned over to Recreation Association. Included are the lighting system and bleachers.

Receipts Decrease
In concluding the business for the past year, it was revealed the league suffered its poorest financial season in history. For the first time in years the league operated in the red. Receipts from the refreshment stand and collections were far below normal. However, a balance carried over from 1957 will enable the organization to meet all indebtedness.

It was voted to purchase a trophy as well as individual miniature balls for the Elks team which won the regular season and play-off titles.

In addition to the officers attending the meeting were representatives of the Elks, New Agency, W-L Warehouse and Table Rock.

FRANK LARY BEATS YANKS SEVENTH TIME

By ED WILKS
Even Casey Stengel was a pup in 1916. Which should give you an idea of just how long it's been since any pitcher beat the New York Yankees seven times in one season.

That's what Frank Lary, a losing right-hander against the rest of the American League, pulled off Tuesday, beating the champs 4-2 at Detroit with a three-hitter.

Ed Cicotte was 7-1 against New York in 1916.

While the Tigers gained nothing less than a season tie with the Yankees, Chicago's second-place White Sox beat Baltimore 4-3 and Cleveland tied Boston for fourth by beating Washington 5-1 on rookie Gary Bell's two-hitter. Boston was routed out at Kansas City.

Lary, 7-1 against the Yankees this season, gave up singles to Tony Kubek in the fourth inning and Jerry Lumpe and Marv Throneberry in the fifth. But they were good for a 2-0 Yankee lead as relief ace Ryne Duren pitched a four-hit shutout over five innings in his first start. The Tigers then scored off rookie Zack Monroe (4-2) in the sixth, and won it on Gus Zernial's pinch, two-run double in the seventh.

Sherm Lollar's 20th home run capped a tying, three-run third for the White Sox, who bagged it on Billy Goodman's single, a walk and Bubba Phillips' third single in the eighth. Dick Donovan (14-13) won it. Hoyt Wilhelm (2-10) was the loser.

Bell (11-8), who pitched six innings of no-hit ball against Boston in his last start, put down the Senators on a first-inning single by Herb Plews and a ninth-inning single by rookie Bob Allison. The Nats scored in the eighth on two walks and a sacrifice fly. Bell also was 4-for-4, driving in a run in a four-run seventh against loser Pete Ramos (14-15).

Chicago Bears Ask
Waivers On Four

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bears have placed waivers on four players, including eight-year veteran end Bill Wightkin, former Notre Dame football star.

Wightkin announced his retirement Tuesday and took a Bear scouting job.

The Bears, unbeaten in five exhibition football games this year, also asked waivers on Bobby Watkins, four year veteran halfback from Ohio State; M. L. Brackett, third year tackle from Auburn and Dick Lucas, rookie end from Boston College.

Major League Stars
Pitching — Gary Bell, Indiana, gave up only two singles, walked two and struck out five in 5-1 victory over the Senators.

Hitting — Dick Stuart and Bob Skinner, Pirates, drove in all three Bucs runs between them as Stuart doubled twice, tripled and scored twice on singles by Skinner in 3-1 victory over the Cardinals after completion of 2-4 victory in suspended game.

Rumors About Big Changes In Big Loops Flying High

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
CHICAGO (AP) — Reports, rumors and denials today clouded the 1959 status of such major league figures as Fred Hutchinson, Birdie Tebbets and Eddie Stanky.

If Hutchinson, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, is headed for the same job with Baltimore, it's news to Orioles chief Paul Richards.

Reports that Tebbets, ex-manager of Cincinnati, is going into an executive capacity with either St. Louis or Milwaukee, also brought denials.

And to top it all off, Cleveland

MINOR LEAGUES PLAN CHANGES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A possible realignment of minor baseball leagues and a suggested partnership between major and minor leagues are being discussed at a meeting of 50 baseball officials here, but no action has been taken.

George M. Trautman, president of the National Assn. of Professional Baseball Leagues, the minor leagues said: "A fair amount of progress was made on the proposed realignment."

But he added the discussion Tuesday night was only exploratory.

He would not name cities mentioned in the possible changes because he said it is always damaging to the communities involved.

Names Committee
Basically, Trautman reported, the changes would be wherever needed to better transportation facilities or to create more geographical rivalry.

Attending the two-day meeting are minor league presidents, major league farm directors and club officials. Trautman said the conference is merely for discussion of problems. No action will be taken.

Trautman named Earl Mann of Atlanta, Hillman Lyons of Charleston and Sam Smith Jr., of Dothan, Ala., as minor league members of a nine-man committee to meet Sept. 23-24 with Commissioner Ford Frick in New York to study a new bonus rule.

The first football scoreboard was used when Pennsylvania played Harvard at Cambridge in 1893.

Cardinal General Manager Bing Devine admitted having talked to Stanky but refused to comment on the talks with the Cleveland coach until the end of the season Sept. 28. However, Devine said that director of player personnel would not be a correct title for any job he had discussed with Stanky.

The Stanky Story
And then there is Stanky. The former St. Louis manager would not be pinned down

RARICK QUIET AS STEELWORKERS BACK M'DONALD

By JOHN MOODY
ATLANTIC CITY, N. Y. (AP) — United Steelworkers delegates Tuesday settled down to convention business after giving President David J. McDonald a unanimous and colorful vote of confidence.

The 55-year-old McDonald, whose leadership of the 1,200,000-member union had been questioned, was cited Monday as a labor statesman who has brought great gains to the USW.

The confidence vote started with the reading of a resolution and developed into a parade of hundreds of placard-carrying delegates marching with band music to the stage to shake the union leader's hand.

Opposition Falters.
The unanimous vote marked the third time in the opening session of the USW's ninth constitutional convention that expected opposition to union policy failed to develop. The others were on convention procedure.

The opponents to the incumbent leadership — apparently a small segment of the nearly 3,500 seated delegates — call themselves the Dues Protest Committee. They are headed by Donald C. Rarick of McKeesport, Pa.

Rarick said he did not speak out against the McDonald resolution because "the demonstration was rigged by international officers."

He said: "We definitely intend to carry on the fight at this convention. We are not interested in ousting David J. McDonald. All we are interested in is making a better case for trade unionism."

Member Views Muffled.
"Under the present administration the average steelworker has practically no say in the way the union is being run."

In his keynote speech to the convention, McDonald referred to the Dues Protest Committee as

Icelanders Fail To Board Trawler

LONDON (AP) — The Icelandic gunboat Thor tried to put a boarding party on the 397-ton British trawler Red Lancer Monday night as the codfish war off Iceland flared up again, the British navy reported.

An Admiralty communique said the destroyers Hogue and Lagos and another British trawler—the Arctic Explorer—chased the Icelanders away.

The incident broke a lull of several days in active Icelandic attempts to arrest British trawlers fishing inside Iceland's new 12-mile limit.

The alligator is strictly a product of the Americas, except for one species in China.

"members practicing dual unionism."

The USW president said he was merely the symbol which they would destroy. He urged the delegates, "if you want to be clean and strong . . . rip the cancer out of your bowels."

Later at a news conference, McDonald said he was not recommending expulsion from the union for the opponent group but he added:

"It's up to the resolutions committee. That's their province, not mine. I certainly won't fight against it (expulsion)."

Fight Abandoned.
The union president defined dual unionism as "organizing to thwart the policies established by delegates at an international convention."

The Dues Protest Committee was organized in 1956 after a USW convention that year increased membership dues from $3 to $5 a month. Rarick said the committee has abandoned its fight to have the increase rescinded.

Before and after the demonstration of confidence, McDonald was praised by some members of the USW executive board. Earlier there had been published reports that he was at odds with the executive board.

LEADER CHARGE STINGS SCOTT IN TV DEBATE

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP)—A charge by Gov. George Leader that Rep. Hugh Scott took a $2,000 fee for obtaining a pardon for an undesirable alien bounced the campaign for U. S. senator into a sharp-edged clash of personalities today.

Scott called Leader "a political hit-and-run artist" for making the charge at the tailend of a televised debate last night, leaving Scott without an opportunity to reply.

The sizzling face-to-face debate, first between statewide candidates in modern Pennsylvania political history, wound up with Leader stalking out of the studio (WTPA) refusing to amplify his charge.

String By Scott.
The governor, stung by Scott's televised contention that the present State Pardon Board has "turned loose hundreds of murderers and hardened criminals," shouted over his shoulder:

"Ask Mr. Scott. He got the dough."

Scott, after the half-hour debate, acknowledged to newsmen that his law firm accepted a $2,000 fee in 1954 after his first and only appearance before a previous board under Republican control.

Marcello Case.
He pleaded for the pardon of a Philadelphia he identified only as Marcello who he said was convicted of conspiracy and robbery in a crime committed 25 years ago.

Hazy about details, Scott could not recall the man's first name. After the Pardon Board heard the case, he added, Marcello was given a pardon but was later deported to Italy.

Scott said he sponsored legislation in Congress recently allowing Marcello to return to the United States. Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) supported the measure, later signed into law, but the man still has not returned to this country, added Scott. He said Marcello was ill.

"The Marcello family are fine people," he told newsmen. "I strongly resent the governor's smear of an excellent Italian family."

Leader Hedges.
Asked if he received a fee for sponsoring the federal legislation, the Republican congressman replied, "No."

The Pardon Board issue enlivened the debate that hashed and rehashed issues previously discussed by the two senatorial candidates.

Leader and Scott sat at desks 30 feet apart in the studio with Don Wear, station manager, serving as moderator. Each candidate was allowed nine minutes to present his case and five minutes of rebuttal.

Scott led off with a proposal that the debate be continued over the station between now and the Nov. 4 general election. Leader replied, however, that he preferred to run his own campaign in his own way.

More Supplies Get To Quemoy.
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Nationalists got more supplies to the beleaguered Quemoy by planes and ship Tuesday, the Defense Ministry announced.

It was the third straight day the Nationalists supplied Little Quemoy by air. Seven cargo planes made the latest airdrop, the ministry said.

An LST—Landing Ship, Tank—rammed ashore on Quemoy and unloaded all its cargo in 20 minutes, the ministry reported. This would indicate the cargo may have been taken off the ship in amphibious vehicles.

The Nationalists succeeded in a ship landing on Quemoy Sunday after a week of failures.

The new ship run to Quemoy came as the Nationalist reported

SHORT WALK IN DAMASCUS CAN LINK CENTURIES

By RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer
Snaps from a traveler's album: It is only a short walk, but it crosses 2000 years and brings you back to a strange and moving story.

You leave the modern section of Damascus, the hotels, theaters and department stores, and walk toward the east. The pavement ends. Soon you come to a narrow street. There are no signs, but without asking, you know its name.

"Go into the street called Straight."

Nobody Knows How Old.
It runs straight as an arrow through the bazaar to the crumbling remains of the city's old east wall. How old? Nobody knows.

Damascus, they say, is the oldest inhabited city in the world. This street, surely, must have been seen by the ancient Egyptians, and by forgotten kings even before them.

"And inquire in the house of Judas."

In that house, the story says, a man named Saul lay sightless, stunned by what he had seen. Nobody knows what it was.

Choked With People.
You try to picture how the street looked at that time. Probably very much as it does today.

It is narrow and choked with people. A man in long, loose robes rides past on a little white donkey. A dark-eyed woman veils her face. Day and night, they mill through the street, buying, bartering, haggling, or merely gossiping with craftsmen and storekeepers.

The shops are open-fronted, without windows or doors. From the goldsmith's shop comes the tinkle of his hammer, shaping a bangle for a lady's wrist. There are stone cutters and carpenters, cobblers, tailors, leather-workers they were working new attempts to crack the Red artillery blockade of the offshore islands.

and merchants, jammed close together in a great, buzzing honeycomb. The air smells of spice, fruit and ancient dust.

A Mysterious Story.
You can buy everything here—gold, silver, precious gems, a saracen's armor, a spitted lamb or a yellow melon.

It is a very worldly street. "And inquire for one called Saul of Tarsus."

It is a very mysterious story and after nearly 2000 years, men still puzzle over the meaning, and dispute the truth of it.

On the road to Damascus, the Bible says, Saul heard a voice, calling his name. Some powerful force swept over him. It left him blind and helpless. They had to lead him by the hand into the street called Straight.

Record Seems Clear.
For three days, he lay there stunned, unable to eat or drink.

Was it a hallucination, something Saul of Tarsus imagined?

The road to Damascus passes through bleak and forbidding mountains. Heat waves rise from the tortured rocks. The mirage floats across the desert floor. It would be easy to "see" strange things here in the heat of days.

Yet, the historical record seems clear. This man had been a destroyer, savage and implacable. The Disciples themselves were afraid of him. Then, in that blinding moment on the desert, he changed and the story says he became a totally different man — "All that heard him were amazed."

Sign Marks Spot.
You walk along the street called Straight, remembering the story, and wondering.

But this is not all. You come to the east end of the street. There stands the ruin of the old Roman gate. The story says that, after his mysterious transformation, Saul's enemies determined to kill him.

"And they watched the gates, day and night. Then the Disciples took him by night and let him down by the wall in a basket." So he escaped.

Not far from the Roman gate, at a segment of the old wall, there is a kind of shrine and a sign.

"At this spot, St. Paul escaped from the city, having been let down the wall in a basket."

Urge Subsidies For Timber Conservation

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Owners of small forests in four states were told Tuesday that public subsidies might be one way of persuading them to practice timber conservation.

One state forester, Ralph C. Wible, proposed public subsidies in the form of eased tax burdens and more liberal credit regulations. He spoke at a meeting sponsored by the U. S. Forest Service and state foresters of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. Another speaker advocated direct federal subsidies for well managed timber stands.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that in the four states small forest holdings constitute three-fourths of the 20 million acres of forest lands.

Medicines and drugs, dangerous to children, should be kept in a locked cabinet out of their reach.

M'GONIGLE TO MAKE DRIVE TO ROAD DEATHS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Arthur F. McGonigle, Republican candidate for governor, declared today he would recommend legislation "to slow down the highway demons." If he is elected governor Nov. 4.

"One of the primary causes of accidents is speed," McGonigle said.

He made the statement here after cancelling a scheduled appearance in Williamsport with the Lycoming County Council of Republican Women.

Pointing to highway accidents in Pennsylvania this year, McGonigle said "action to protect lives and property must be accelerated."

Praise For Gulf Oil

"Based on the accident - cause findings of the Bureau of Highway Safety, and other agencies seeking safer highways, I will assign competent engineers to work with the bureau and the State Department of Highways to eliminate hazards in future road construction," McGonigle asserted.

He again stressed his proposed establishment of a state highway planning commission "to make certain highway safety is built into future highways."

Tuesday night at Reading McGonigle praised the Gulf Oil Co. for urging its employees to get into politics.

Assails Democrats

"Businessmen and women had better take an active part in fighting for sound, sensible government or they are going to be taking orders from predatory politicians, such as are now grabbing control of state government," he said.

McGonigle, speaking to a Republican Finance Committee, said good business provides jobs and the money for humanitarian legislation.

The Lawrence - Leader regime has forfeited public confidence by their incompetence," he said. "Their failure is evidenced by a constant decline in services to people while taxes go up and up."

THIS MODERN WORLD

SANTO DOMINGO PUEBLO, N. M. — This northern New Mexico Indian pueblo where, until recent times smoke signals were the vogue, recently was the scene of ceremonies by the Mountain States Telephone Co., marking the installation of the two-millionth telephone in the Rocky Mountain region. It was placed in the home of the pueblo governor.

Pennsy Takes Appeal On PUC Decision

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad has appealed to the State Superior Court a Public Utilities Commission ruling concerning curtailment of train service.

The PUC ruling required the railroad to obtain the commission's permission before changing the schedules of some 34 trains between New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

The railroad argued Tuesday that the ruling was arbitrary and unlawful. Prior to the ruling, the railroad only had to notify the PUC when it changed schedules.

SCHOOL FUSS IS SETTLED

NEW YORK (AP) — Parents of seven Negro children who had been kept out of public school in Brooklyn in a protest against schools with almost all Negro pupils have settled their dispute with school authorities.

The parents agreed to send the children to classes Tuesday in a school other than the one to which they were originally assigned.

The issue was settled Monday by the expedient of immediate instead of delayed rezoning of school districts.

There actually is no segregation in New York City schools. But the racial makeup of neighborhoods leads to some schools with nearly all Negro or Puerto Rican pupils and other schools with nearly all white pupils.

The pupils had been assigned to Public School 93, which has almost all Negro pupils.

Under the agreement, the seven pupils will attend nearby Public School 138, which is in a racially mixed neighborhood and has a mixed student body.

The world's first horticultural society was established in Belgium in 1780.

HONOLULU (AP) — Deputy police chief Arthur M. Tarbell was worried about a proposal to house police headquarters and the district court several miles apart. Tarbell said the separation would give prisoners a chance to be rescued by their cronies while being escorted from one place to the other.

SISTERS SENT TO JAIL WHEN THEY TAKE 5TH

READING, Pa. (AP) — Two young sisters who spent the night in Berks County Jail get another opportunity today to avoid contempt proceedings by agreeing to testify in an abortion case.

Barbara Ann Snyder, 19, and her sister, Dolores, 23, of Bainbridge, R. D. 1, invoked the Fifth Amendment Tuesday when called to testify in the trial of Dr. William H. Fisher.

The Reading osteopath is charged with performing the illegal operation on the younger girl. Her older sister, according to Dist. Atty. Frederick Brubaker, was present at the time.

Neither girl would answer questions other than to identify themselves and give their address and the names of their parents. They contended they were not obliged to give testimony which might tend to incriminate them.

Judge Albert Reading then recessed the trial and ordered the girls held overnight to reconsider their decision or be held in contempt.

JUROR LUNCHES WITH WITNESS AND TRIAL ENDS

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Two Air Force officers and a business executive today faced new Federal Court action after their initial trial on charges of conspiring to defraud the U. S. government was declared a mistrial.

Judge Frederick V. Follmer ordered selection of a new jury from a new panel starting next Monday. Tuesday Follmer angrily dismissed the initial jury in the case and the complete panel from which it was chosen after learning that one of the jurors, Allan B. Jones, Wellsboro salesman, had lunch with a government witness.

Defendants in the trial were Col. Ralph O. Brownfield, Ret., Kansas City; Col. Charles F. Burley, Dayton, Ohio, and Robert E. McNatt, president of Royal Electric, Inc., of Jamestown and Dayton, Ohio.

No Contempt Citation

The alleged fraud concerned purchases for the Olmsted Air Force Base at Middletown, near Harrisburg. Brownfield was deputy commander at Olmsted in late 1954 and early 1955. Burley was in charge of procurement.

The 13-page indictment charged 44 overt acts by the defendants in helping obtain government contracts. U. S. Atty. Robert Hourigan said the acts included gifts of $5,000 and $5,800 in cash, two wrist watches, a record player and an automobile worth over $3,000.

In declaring the mistrial, Follmer said it was the first in his 12 years on the Middle District bench. He added that Jones could be cited for contempt but that he did not plan such action.

Unmanned Navy Blimp Soars Free 6 Hours In Air Lanes

BRUNSWICK, Ga. (AP) — A runway Navy blimp soared free and unmanned for six hours in one of the nation's busiest airline routes Tuesday and then settled back to earth by itself.

The big craft came down about 25 miles east of nearby Glynnco Naval Air Station, start of the strange joy ride, just as authorities considered shooting it down as a menace to planes on the New York-Miami route.

Other blimps, helicopters and planes kept the runaway under observation during its flight to a height of about 7,500 feet a mile west of Sapelo Island off the Georgia coast.

Lost Its Fuel
The blimp's escapade began when the pilot lost rudder control during takeoff and brought the craft in for an emergency landing, the Navy said. The blimp hit the ground so hard that gasoline tanks ruptured and the fuel drained out.

That lightened the 287-foot craft so much that the harried 10-man crew had to release helium to get the bucking blimp to earth again. Then the engines failed.

The crew leaped out, tried to moor the blimp but it slipped free and was gone.
A Navy spokesman said that apparently a helium escape valve, which the crew pulled, finally did its job, bringing the blimp down without assistance.

The first railroad in the U. S. is believed to have been a short track of wooden rails built in 1795 on Beacon Hill in Boston, Mass. Wagons drawn by horses supplied the transportation.

SOME CITIES PREPARING FOR ATTACK BY AIR

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six Pennsylvania cities today reported improvement in their ability to meet enemy air attack but indicated interest on the part of the general public still is not what it should be.

Estimates of civil defense ability ranged from Altoona's "excellent" to Philadelphia's "prepared for fair accounting" and Reading's "beginning has been made."

Regarding attitudes of the public toward civil defense, Philadelphia reported a "developing awareness."

Other cities were less happy about it. Allentown listed the local attitude as "very lax," Altoona—indifferent, Reading—too apathetic, Lancaster—majority indifferent or fatalistic, and Erie—accept civil defense as necessary.

153 Across Nation
The six cities were among 153 around the nation replying in a survey on Civil Defense conducted by the American Municipal Assn. A published report listed no replies from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania's No. 2 city in population, from Scranton, No. 4, and some other ranking cities in the Commonwealth.

The replies and comments were submitted to the association by the mayors' offices and in some cases by local Civil Defense directors. No names were supplied by the report.

The report said U. S. Civil Defense capabilities are greatly improved and that given adequate warning, most cities could evacuate people in large numbers.

"What is needed now," the report said, "is development of reception areas, stockpiling of essential emergency supplies outside of target areas and the building of shelter against blast as well as against thermal and radiological hazards."

WILL DECORATE STATE SOLDIER

PT. LEWIS, Wash. (AP) — A Pennsylvania soldier is to be decorated here Wednesday for helping passengers escape from an airliner that crashed and burned near Minneapolis last month.

Pvt. Ray Marushek of Philadelphia, Pa., will receive the Soldier's Medal, the Army's highest non-combat award for bravery, from Maj. Gen. Louis W. Turman, commander of the 4th Infantry Division here.

Marushek ripped a hole in the fuselage of a Northwest Orient Airlines plane after the craft crashed in a cornfield during a takeoff attempt from Minneapolis Aug. 28, then guided fellow passengers through the hole to safety before the plane exploded and burned.

Marushek, who was returning to duties at Ft. Lewis following a two-week furlough, is being treated at nearby Madigan Army Hospital for knee injuries suffered in the crash.

BELIEVE SEVEN DEAD WHEN JET PLANE CRASHES

SOUTH ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — A B52 jet bomber on a training mission crashed in flames on a farm Tuesday night. The copilot parachuted to safety. Seven other crew members were missing and presumed dead.

The giant plane, based at Loring Air Force Base, Limestone, Maine, missed the densely populated Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan district by three miles, and an oil refinery by a similar distance.

Exploding fuel tanks of the plane fired the house, barn and outbuildings on the August Kahl farm three miles south of here. Eight members of the Kahl family were hospitalized with burns; three in serious condition.

On Practice Mission

The plane was on a practice bombing mission to Minneapolis. Identification of the missing crewmen was withheld.

Capt. Jack Douglas Craft, 29, parachuted to safety. He said the plane "started to come apart in the air." He was hospitalized suffering from shock, cuts and bruises.

Kahl, 51, his 81-year-old father Edward and his son Loren, 15, were severely burned. Mrs. Kahl and four daughters, 5 to 17, were treated for cuts and burns, but not hospitalized.
